

Our Camp is a place where connection, belonging, and growth come to life for individuals of all abilities. We bring people together to share laughter, new adventures, and meaningful moments—building genuine friendships between our community and individuals with disabilities. Through shared experiences, we replace assumptions with understanding and create connections that truly matter.

Belong

In a culture of unconditional acceptance and inclusion, everyone is valued, welcomed, and celebrated just as they are.

Through shared experiences, we build genuine friendships that replace assumptions with understanding and bring our community closer together.

Connect

Play

Filled with laughter, adventure, and hands-on activities where individuals of all abilities can explore, try new things, and create joyful memories.

Campers and volunteers alike gain confidence, strengthen social skills, and discover the unique gifts they bring to the world.
